MARSHFIELD CRICKET CLUB

FOUNDED 1901

- This policy is fully supported by Marshfield Cricket Club officers and Management Committee who are responsible for the implementation of this policy.

Marshfield Cricket Club is committed to the investigation of any claims when brought to its attention, of discrimination, harassment, bullying, abuse or victimisation of an individual, and reserves the right to impose such sanction as it considers appropriate and proportionate, where such is found to be the case.

- In the event that any employee, member, volunteer, participant or spectator feels that he has suffered discrimination, harassment, bullying, abuse or victimisation, they should report the matter in writing to the Committee of Marshfield Cricket Club.
- Any such report should include: details of what occurred; when and where the occurrence took place; any witness details and copies of any witness statements.
- If the accused individual is an employee, the Management Committee will regard the issue as a disciplinary issue and will follow Marshfield Cricket Club's employment disciplinary procedure.
- If the accused individual is a non-employee, the Management Committee:
 - may decide at its sole discretion to uphold or dismiss the complaint without holding a hearing;
 - may at its sole discretion hold a hearing at which both parties will be entitled to attend and present their case;
 - will have the power to impose any one or more of the following sanctions on any person found to be in breach of any policy: (a) warn as to future conduct; (b) suspend from membership; (c) remove from membership; (d) exclude a non-member from the facility, either temporarily or permanently; and (e) turn down a non-member's current and/or future membership application; and
 - will provide both parties with written reasons for its decision.
